Boycott Of Japan

JAPANESE WORRIED OVER SERIOUSNESS OF CHINESE MERCHANTS

The Japan Mail in an editorial discussion of the Canton boycott, says:

It now appears that the original official forecasts as to the probable unimportance of the Canton boycott were much mistaken. All the telegrams agree that the movement has assumed very large dimensions, and that it is built on solid foundation. In both Canton and Hongkong, Chinese traders who habitually deal in Japanese goods are said to have put up $100 each as security for their adherence to the league, the understanding being that this money shall be forfeited by any who departs from the boycott. Japanese currency is refused, and no goods are shipped in Japanese bottoms. The Jiji Shimpo's Hongkong correspondent writes under date of the 2nd inst. that it would be very difficult for the central government to interfere, as the procedure of the boycotters is quite orderly and offers no ground for legal restraint. From this same correspondent we learn that American and German merchants are utilizing the opportunity in their own interest, and that they employ bands of music to parade the streets, accompanying their banners on which are inscribed advertisements of non-Japanese goods. Indeed this correspondent plainly hints that the organization of the Chinese boycotters has evidently been fostered and directed by Japan's foreign competitors. He thinks that much time and patient adroitness will be necessary to correct the situation, and he adds that the affair vividly illustrates China's rights-recovery mood. To most foreign observers it must be now very evident that the sweet reasonableness hitherto attributed to the Chinese people is a myth. Nothing could possibly be more unreasonable than the conduct of the Cantonese at present. The matter against which they are girding so vehemently is no longer a sub judice. It has been settled and finally disposed of, and the Japanese Government has shown a most friendly disposition in dealing with the only doubtful feature of the incident, namely, the importation of arms and ammunition into China. If every international question which is not settled entirely to the satisfaction of the Chinese nation is to be the signal of a commercial boycott, it is plain that relations with the Middle Kingdom must soon become quite impossible. The Peking Government cannot but appreciate this situation, and one finds difficulty in believing that its efforts to restore the people of Canton to their sober senses are sincere.

"The orders of my predecessor shall stand for some time at least and probably indefinitely. Until I have become more familiar with the place I cannot tell about this."

ARTIST KUBELIK IS ECCENTRIC

Some rather amusing incidents are related of Kubelik on his travels. In his suite are his manager and secretary, and, for his personal use, two valets. Then there is Madame Kubelik and the blessed twins. Madame Kubelik has with her two maids. There are instances where the great violinist in his eccentric moments has felt the need of quiet, and, perhaps, with an eye single to keeping the sound of his violin from profane ears, he has engaged the entire floor of an expensive hotel. Of course, these little things contrast well with Kubelik's early life, when he watched his father till the soil in his little garden. When his thoughts go back to the garden days, he marvels at his tremendous advance, and is pleased. He is a wonderful man, is Kubelik, for he has given to the world an idea of what a violin is in the hands of a real artist. There are players and players, and in their individual mind each is a Paganini, but there is but one Kubelik, and it will be decades before his equal will be heard here again. It is suggested that the lovers of good music engage their seats at Wall, Nichols Co. today.

Cure for Drunkenness

Orrible Treatment to be Used at Home Without Publicity, or Loss of Time from Business.

The best aid to temperance is something that will strengthen the drunkard's wrecked nervous system and cure his unnatural craving for drink. We believe that any man who really desires to be cured of the liquor habit can cure himself by using Orline. This remarkable treatment has made so many cures that we are glad to sell it under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. It is in two forms: No. 1 that can be given secretly, and No. 2 for those who wish to be cured. It is not only the most reliable treatment known, but it is also the most economical as it costs only $1 a box and there is no detention from the usual duties, while if a cure is not effected, there is no expense whatever. Mail orders filled on receipt of price in plain sealed package. Write for free booklet. The Orline Co., Washington, D. C., or Honolulu Drug Co.

REES LIKES SITE AT PEARL HARBOR

"I think Pearl Harbor is an ideal location for a naval station," said Capt. Rees yesterday immediately after returning from a trip to the place in the company of Admiral Verry. "It is a splendid location for the uses to which it will be put."

"I did not go any further on the frolics yesterday, but I have seen a good deal of the city in the company of Admiral Verry. Honolulu is a delightful place. I have been here before; about 20 years ago, but I now find a great change. The place is immensely improved, and modernized, and I am very much pleased with it indeed. A great advancement has evidently been made."

JAPAN SCENTS NO TROUBLE AT HARBIN

In reference to the report that the Washington Government has decided to take no action concerning the railway jurisdiction question in Harbin, it is stated in well-informed circles in Tokyo that the recent remonstrances raised by the American Consul there seem to have been presented on his own initiative, but not under instructions from Washington. If it had been in accordance with the plan of the State Department, the negotiations would have been conducted by the American Minister in Peking with the Chinese Central Government.—Japan Gazette.
